

Living Composer Feature Form

Each month, we will be featuring a composer who lives and works in the 21st century. The feature consists of a blog post about you and your work, along with your Top 5 classical music picks. There will also be a home page slide to direct people to the blog post, and a social media post..

Please send the completed form and require materials through to contact@soundgardenclassical.com. We look forward to sharing your work!
